SUPPLEMENT TO
REPORT NO. 25X1X

- 25X1X 1. [REDACTED] some 250 raids were made 13 May 1950 on houses, meeting places, and offices connected with the Partido Comunista de Venezuela (PCV), following the issuance of the government decree dissolving the Party that afternoon.
2. The raiding officials found no Party correspondence, files, or membership lists in any of the localities. Considerable propaganda was confiscated, and source states some 1000 new red flags were found. He stated that in his opinion these would have been put to use had the general strike and internal disturbances been successful in allowing an opportunity for revolt or demonstration.
